

We would like to invite you, students, graduates, alumni, PhD students, and young researchers to participate in an international conference in Prague.

CONFERENCE OF YOUNG SLAVISTS XVII

Phenomenon of Second-Classness and Marginality in the Slavic Area

Organized by Department of East European Studies, Charles University
7-8 December 2023, Faculty of Arts, Charles University,
Nám. Jana Palacha 2, Prague 1, Czech Republic

The primary objective of this project is to familiarize young researchers in Slavistics and its affiliated fields with the scientific research of their counterparts in other academic institutions. As part of the project, attendees will be given the opportunity to have their submissions feature in a peer-reviewed conference publication.

Sections will be made after selecting the papers based on the synopsis.
The topics are: 1. language 2. literature 3. history and culture 4. posters*
*aside from presenting the paper it is possible to present the research in a form of a poster

Deadline for applications: 18 June 2023.

COYS'23

CHARLES UNIVERSITY